► In your Bible and Discipleship this week:

In your Bible this week:

Read one of these passages each day to deepen the impact of the sermon and to prepare for next week. Utilize your Life Journal pages or a note book, writing down a word, phrase or verse that especially speaks to you, then applying the SOAP process. Then, SOAK in God's presence with meditation and prayer.

Further study from this week's sermon:

1. Genesis 1:26-31; 2:15-24; Matthew 19:1-12.
2. Ephesians 5:22-6;4.
3. 1 Peter 3:1-7.
4. Galatians 5:13-26.
5. James 1:2-4; 19; 4:1-8.

Discussion questions for processing the sermon with your disciple buddy or small group: Meditate on the following passages about how you have God's power to be the kind of person He's called you to be:

2 Corinthians 5:17-18

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

Colossians 1:27

. the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Ephesians 2:4-5

But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions —

Ephesians 3:16-17

I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being,

1 Peter 1:13-16 Therefore, prepare your minds for action; be self-controlled; set your hope fully on the grace to be given you when Jesus Christ is revealed. As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance. But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."

1 John 3:16-17 This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.

1 John 4:7-10 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.
